SOJOURN

SCENIC UMASS LOWELL

Campuses are marked by historic buildings as well as new enhancements. The university has spent the last few years cultivating the grass, planting new trees, laying new walkways and sprinkler systems, and of course the great Gazebo on South Campus. All of this enhances the campus climate for the students who come to our university.

SPORTS

Is there any better feeling than sitting in the Tsongas Arena with your friends, when the crowd is roaring, the riverhawks winning, and the smell of popcorn and fried dough are pervading the air? Win or lose, there is always a strong momentum of excitement in the Arena, and nobody leaves until the final buzzer sounds.

And if we're not at the Arena, then you can probably find us over at Lalacheur Park. Whether it's football or baseball you've come for, you're always guaranteed a good time at Lalacheur. The people are friendly, the food is delicious, and the school spirit non-stop. Let's go Riverhawks!

THE NEW SOUTHWICK

The new Southwick lounge on North has everything a student needs to get away from studying. Whether getting roast turkey, sandwiches, or chinese noodles the new lounge has everything you could possibly want to eat. After having a big meal there is still always time to take a quick nap. There is also a new room of pooltables and video games which gives the student an excellent chance to relax and get away from it all. Last but not least is the new mail system where you can always see a student going to get their mail. Whenever you go into the new Southwick lounge, there is always a warm and friendly face waiting to greet you that gives you a sense of togetherness.

ACADEMICS ON NORTH CAMPUS

Do these scenes look familiar? Than you must have spent some time on North Campus. From Accounting to Mechanical Engineering. North Campus is full of these mayors and by the look of things they have plenty of work in front of them that will take a life time, but in the end it will be worth it!

ART

Whether it's painting a picture, sculpting a statue, or molding a vase, the time one spends at UMass Lowell always makes for a masterpiece. These students are very dedicated to their work and it shows. Who will be the next artist of the century? It might just be all of them!

MUSIC

Music is a very important part of UMass Lowell. In addition to those students majoring in music, all students are exposed to the UMass Lowell music program in one area or another. Some get psyched up by the band at a football game, while others go to one of the many concerts during the year that are performed by UMass Lowell students.

From electric cars to the latest in plastic innovation, these folks know it all. Life is science and science is their life. Night and day they tinker, leading the way for the world. No where will you find a more determined group of professors and students than at UMass-Lowell. Among us are the future architects, computer whizzes, and medical researchers. The innovations and practices we learned here will serve us in good stead, as we join the ranks of the professionals.

WJUL

Radio Station

The staff of WJUL 91.5fm comes out from the basement of the library for a photo opportunity. The radio station is a one of the many student run organizations on campus with around 60 active members. WJUL broadcasts 365 days a year with live shows from our studios or remote broadcasts from on and off campus events.

Moving In

Getting settled and making your room your home is a top priority before classes start. It's also the perfect opportunity to make new friends and to see how the old ones are doing.

Every fall the great "move-in" commences with some 1900 students residing on campus.

Once the worst is done and boxes are unpacked, it's time to relax with friends.

Every October, a special day is set aside at UMASS Lowell to celebrate family and friends. This event is called Family Day and is sponsored by the Activities Commission, Residence Hall Association, the Office of Student Activities, Student Centers and Commuter Services, and the Dean of Students.

FAMILY DAY

The University extends an invitation to students, faculty, staff and their families to attend this fun-filled event. There are countless activities to participate in both for the young and old. Registration and an official welcome from Chancellor Hogan starts the day. A roving magician, caricature artists, "olde tyme" photos, and a casino are samples of what was available. The music of "The Marsels," a nine piece band, set the background for a great day.

FAMILY DAY

Clubs and organizations contribute to Family Day by selling food and beverages or hosting an activity. Club activities included pumpkin painting, raffles, hair wraps, and hand painting. Vendors from all over New England were selling a variety of craft items and clothing. Some took advantage of this opportunity to start their holiday shopping. Family Day can be summed up as a major success for this year, along with some great memories for all.

Off Broadway Players Stellar 1998-99 Season

What do long hours, little sleep, great acting and lots of fun add up to? Three great productions from the Off Broadway Players. Anyone who attended either of the two fall productions, or the Spring Musical "Damn Yankees" will tell you the Players are one of the University's best entertainment bargains.

The first offering from our resident drama group this year was Arthur Miller's riveting "The Crucible". Set in nearby Salem, MA, the cast offered a true-to life re-enactment of the Salem witch trials.

Next, the players moved down the EastC coast for Neil Simon's comedy "Brighton Beach Memoirs." A classic coming of age story, the production follows the trials and tribulations of a teenage boy growing up on Long Island. The cast had the perfect design for this November production!

Community Service in Action

Fun For All

Each year hundreds of individual students, clubs and organizations volunteer time to benefit local community groups and issues. While providing a valuable service, it continues to be true that helping others offers its own rewards, especially the smile of a child!!

On this page, the members of Lowells Girls Inc. enjoy a Halloween Haunted House offered by the Residence Hall Association, dormitory style.

The Community Service Organization hosted an April Easter Egg Hunt for children residing in some of the local shelters.

The Connector staff held a toy drive at Christmas and distributed them to a group of happy children as part of their Annual Toys for Tots Campaign.

Challenge By Choice

One of the best kept secrets at the University is the Challenge by Choice Ropes Course, located on West Campus. Learning to take risks in a safe environment provides a powerful means towards self discovery.

Utilizing the philosophy, the individual chooses the extent of the challenge. Topics include building trust, problem solving, communication skills, and group dynamics. All explored by the students as they enjoy a fun filled, but challenging day.

Challenge of Witts

The Annual College Bowl Competition sponsored by the Freshman Honor Society and the Office of Student Activities was held in November. Eight teams of four students competed for campus bragging rights, as they answered questions on topic such as history, math, english, sports, and current events. Joining special guest DJ Mike Mullaney (UML Alumni) of 92.5 FM "the River" were Professor Steve Pennell (Math), Professor Gene Mellican (philosophy, and head of the Honors Program), Veronica Gadbois (Freshman Honors program) and Shelia Riley-Callahan (Centers for Learning.)

The teams ponder the questions posed by Professor Steve Pennell.

Art History Goes to NYC

Dr. Liana Chaney, advisor to the Art History Club, led a small but enthusiastic group of members through some of the art treasures located within New York City. Although it was a long trip, there was still some energy left for souvenir shopping.

CAREER FAIR

Every year, the Office of Career Services organizes one of the largest career fairs in the Greater Boston area. Over 192 employers reserved booths at the Tsongas Arena, where the fair was held, and made contact with many of the approximately 2000 students who attended.

The fair requires a lot of help to be a success and the 35 student volunteers for the event did just that. Students from seven of the surrounding area colleges also were invited to attend. Reports of the quality of the events, from both the students and employers, were extremely positive. The day was definitely a success.

The Jobs Direct van was located just outside the arena and allowed students the opportunity to obtain instant resume critiques.

“READING IS FUN!”

What do you find when you mix college students, young children, and a room full of books? A day of sharing down at the Lowell Public Library. Members of the WiseGuys student organization spent the day promoting literacy and the concept that “reading is fun” to many youngsters. The program hopes to turn into an annual event and fun was had by all.

HEADSTART CHRISTMAS PARTY

To inspire some holiday spirit at UMASS Lowell, every year the Student Government Association holds the annual Headstart Christmas Party in December. The event is truly one to be proud of. The guests of honor at the party are 400 to 500 disadvantaged youths from the area.

The children are entertained by T-Bone before the anticipated arrival of Paul "Santa" Stanton. In addition to entertainment, the children also are served snacks provided by ARAMARK and receive a special gift from Santa and his elves. The day awakens the spirit of holiday giving for those who participate.

The International Relations Club of UMASS Lowell traveled to Washington D.C. in the spring and represented UMASS proudly again. Competing against schools such as Harvard, MIT, Yale, and other Ivy League universities, Dean Bergeron's teams again brought home honors in the national Council on US Arab Relations competition.

SEMESTER BREAK IN ALABAMA

The Catholic Center travels every year to Alabama with a small group of students with the intent to make the world better. Twenty students and recent graduates of UMASS Lowell headed south to the Applachian mountains region of Alabama. The group spent ten day of their Christmas break there, repairing homes of local families. Learning to work together, use power tools and pure elbow grease, in the end resulted in joy for the workers and the families they helped. The spirit of giving at its best!

SEMESTER BREAK IN KENTUCKY

A second trip, also organized and sponsored by the Catholic Center, occurred during the Christmas break, but led students to Kentucky. Again, the students worked hard to improve living conditions for the local families, while also increasing their knowledge of home improvement and teamwork. The smiles on the faces of the children who benefited from the work done by the group affirmed that this was a worthwhile experience.

Who's Who at the University of Massachusetts Lowell

Who's Who Among Students In American Universities and Colleges recognized UMass Lowell students who were in the 1999 edition of the book. Who's Who is awarded to those students who have achieved above average academic standing, outstanding community service, possess exceptional leadership abilities as well as future potential. These life long members were awarded a certificate at the banquet in Alumni Lounge.

Spring Carnival

This year's Spring Carnival was as successful as ever. With a large number of clubs selling anything from t-shirts to Mexican food on a beautiful Spring day, this year's student turnout was huge.

Inflatable rides littered the football field behind Costello Gym and challenged the athletic ability of students. There was a mountain to climb and a two person obstacle course that pitted contestants against each other.

Some of the more traditional carnival activities included rides such as the bumper cars and the satellite, caricature artists and fake tattoo designers.

But what really drew the crowd was the sounds of The Samples preceded by this year's Battle of the Bands winner.

All in all, Spring Carnival brought the University together for a day of food, fun, and friendship.

U.S. gymnast Kerri Strug epitomized the Olympic spirit for many. After falling on her first vault in the women's team competition and injuring her ankle, and unsure whether her score was needed to capture a gold medal for the U.S. team, Strug landed her second vault. The U.S. won a total of 101 medals.

Perhaps the best-kept secret of the year was the September wedding of John F. Kennedy, Jr., and Carolyn Bessette. Only 40 guests were invited to the intimate ceremony on Cumberland Island, Ga., and everyone involved signed an agreement of confidentiality. The couple's return to New York thrust them back in the spotlight, and tabloid reports of marital strain soon followed.

TWA Flight 800, en route to Paris from New York, exploded over Long Island in July, killing all 230 passengers on board. AN OVERVIEW OF EVENTS AND PERSONALITIES OF THE YEAR

After an extraordinary year of "he said/she said," President Clinton's fate was in the hands of the Senate. The embattled president faced impeachment on charges of perjury and obstruction of justice for his conduct in the Monica Lewinsky sex scandal. Clinton, who admitted to having "an improper relationship" with the former White House intern, became the first president in 130 years to be impeached by the House of Representatives. A final resolution in the matter would come after a Senate trial, where a two-thirds vote is required for impeachment.

Using a number-crunching system few understood, polling in the inaugural NCAA Bowl Championship Series resulted in a Fiesta Bowl match-up between No. 1 Tennessee and No. 2 Florida State. The Volunteers beat the Seminoles, 23-16, for the national championship.

Thirty-six years after becoming the first American to orbit the Earth, John Glenn was rocketed back into space on the shuttle Discovery as the world's oldest astronaut. The mission of the 77-year-old former U.S. Senator was to serve as a test subject for NASA's research on aging.

St. Louis Cardinals' first baseman Mark McGwire slammed 70 home runs on the season to eclipse Roger Maris' 37-year-old record of 61. McGwire's heroics were mirrored by Sammy Sosa of the Chicago Cubs, who finished the season with 66 homers. The late-season duel between McGwire and Sosa captivated the nation and was credited for revitalizing baseball, which was still suffering from the fallout of the 1995 players' strike.

Michael J. Fox, star of ABC's "Spin City," broke seven years of silence when he revealed he has Parkinson's disease. The 37-year-old actor, best known for his work on the "Back to the Future" movies, had surgery last May to alleviate symptoms of the disease.

Mounting tensions in Iraq came to a head when Saddam Hussein refused to comply with U.N. resolutions regarding inspections of suspected manufacturing sites for chemical and biological weapons. In response, President Clinton ordered a series of air strikes against Iraq. Dubbed "Operation Desert Fox" by the Pentagon, the air raids by U.S. and British forces lasted four nights and included the destruction of the Iraqi military intelligence headquarters and several weapons facilities.

NBC's highly rated sitcom "Frasier" set an industry record by winning its fifth consecutive Emmy for Outstanding Comedy Series. "Frasier" began its sixth season on a new night, filling the coveted Thursday time slot previously occupied by "Seinfeld."

Voters in Minnesota made a statement against mainstream politics when they elected Reform Party candidate and former professional wrestler Jesse "The Body" Ventura to the statehouse. The Harley-riding, cigar-smoking new governor promised Minnesotans he would return $1 billion of the state's $3 billion budget surplus to taxpayers. Ventura, who served one term as mayor of suburban Brooklyn Park, Minn., was one of only two independent governors in the nation.

Senior Week

Breakfast

A new Tradition was started this year with the implementation of the first Annual Senior Breakfast. The brainchild of the staff from the Office of Career Services and the Office of Alumni Relations, decided that it would be "fun" to serve breakfast to the members of the Senior class. These offices succeeded in convincing over 50 faculty and staff members to participate.

This event was held the last day of classes in Cumnock Auditorium and the very enthusiastic faculty and staff members donned some interesting costumes and served breakfast to about 600 seniors. The smiling face of those who attended guaranteed that this is the start of a new UMass Lowell tradition.

A Day at Fenway

Boston is the place to begin a week of celebration for those graduating seniors. Members of the Class of 1999 started the week by attending a Boston Red Sox game in Fenway Park. It was a challenge to get there, but we did get a great tour of Boston. We sat in the bleachers awaiting the hope of some midday sun while enjoying some expensive snacks and beverages.

The Red Sox scored a victory that day while we watched a win over the Toronto Bluejays with a score of 10-8. The sun never shined and the rains finally came, so it was off to the Boston Beerworks that many seniors went to dry out. This was a start to an activity packed week of fun, laughs, and adventures.

A Ride to Foxwoods

There they were--students all set to enjoy a night of fun and excitement at the casinos in Foxwoods, the destination for today's activity. Traveling by a coach bus, made the discussion of how to win more enjoyable.

Talk of how to win and what to do with the winnings stirred among those in attendance. Though there was no millionaires by the end of the night, spirits, if not pocket-books and wallets, were still high on the travels home.

A night at the Brewery

Seniors packed the third floor of one of the UMass Lowell student's favorite nightspots, the Brewery. The music of Take Two set a mood of laughter and joy for seniors who wanted to dance, snack at the buffet, or enjoy a drink among friends.

For those who didn't want to dance, the pool tables and air hockey tables were available for some friendly competition. All in all, the night at the Brewery set was a great night to relax, sit back, and share some memories with your friends.

Our transportation, the great yellow school bus, did not lose us in Boston this time, but dropped us off early to have some dinner before the show at the Charles Playhouse. Groups of seniors went to well known Boston eateries such as Bennigan's or Legal sea Food.

After dinner, the groups went back to see the critically acclaimed performance defined as "awesome and innovative." For those who haven't seen the Blue Man Group before, it was definitely worth the trip into Boston.

BLUE MAN GROUP TUBES

Odyssey

The traditional harbor cruise was an evening of glamour, fun and excitement. To make the event special, friends shared a great meal and danced to their favorite songs. The luminescent glow of the Boston skyline was great backdrop for the Odyssey Cruise Ship. The people you sat next to in class you might not have even recognized dressed up in their Sunday's Best.

The cruise was one of the most fantastic and memorable evenings for the Class of 1999 and will create lasting memories in many minds.

Odyssey

Odyssey

Riverside

After the late night aboard the Odyssey cruise, some early rising seniors took an extended bus trip to Riverside Park in Agawam, Massachusetts. The weather cooperated for the day's activity by being warm and sunny. After napping on the trip down, seniors awoke to experience roller coasters and many other thrill-seeking rides. Others opted to explore and cool off in the water park.

As the bus headed home, senior week officially came to a close. It will go down in the record books as one of the best weeks for all. Now, our final stop on this journey is to the Tsongas Arena for Commencement.

SENIOR CLASS ADDRESS FROM CLASS OF 1999 PRESIDENT PAUL STANTON

Today is a special day for all of us filled with joy, sadness, excitement, relief, and enthusiasm. As we take our next step into the world, we will all look back at these last few years and remember not the tests we took or the hard teachers we had; but rather all of the friends and special times we shared with one another along the way. For some of us, this is the final stepping-stone to a long journey into the "real world." For others, this is but a stone's throw towards a master or doctorate degree.

As each student moves along his or her own path from here we will all have shared at least one special moment, time together here at our graduation. Today is the day that we celebrate all of the hard work and effort we have put into the last four or five years of our life. Although it has been a long and hard journey, each one of us has risen to the challenge and achieved another goal.

Similar to when a child places his or her hand in wet cement, each graduate leaving here today will begin to create his or her own imprint on the world around us. Each and every one of us has a special role here on earth. So, as the start of a new era arises, I implore each and every one of you to use the knowledge and skills you have acquired as students at UMass Lowell to make the world a better place. As the saying goes "They saved the best for last." The Class of 1999 bears no exception when applying the rule to each of us in the last graduating class of the millennium.

Although it is our day to shine we must not forget how we have reached this point. It is now time for us graduates to say "Thank You" to the individuals who have helped us achieve our goals. Mothers, fathers, husbands, wives, sisters, brothers, grandparents, friend, faculty, and staff you have made this day a reality by the support you have bestowed on each of us whether emotional or financial. On behalf of the Class of 1999, I say "Thank You."

On a more personal note, I would like to take this opportunity to thank Mary Connelly and Brenda Evans for making my years at UMass memorable ones. To Dean Verreault, Thank You for the support and encouragement you have given me. Thank you to my fellow class officers, Ethan Zimmer, Loretta Montgomery, and Nathan Saffron. A special Thank You to Professor Collins for putting together the Accounting Resume Book which served as a very important instrument in helping accounting students such as myself obtain interviews and jobs with top accounting firms.

At this time, I would like to thank two of the most important people in my life: my mom and dad. You have taught me right from wrong and were always there when I needed a helping hand or someone to listen to my problems. You have supported me and always encouraged me to believe I could do anything I put my mind to. You have provided me with excellent memories that I will cherish forever and have helped to make all my dreams come true. For this, I just want to say Thank You and I LOVE YOU!

To you, my fellow graduates, I say Congratulations, Good Luck, and let's go out there and prove to the world that "They did save the best for last!"

Commencement

The long awaited Graduation Day finally arrived. Senator Steven Panagiotakos joined Chancellor Hogan and the assembled faculty and staff in greeting the graduates, their friends and families. Congressman Marty Meehan, a long friend of UMass Lowell, graciously accepted the honor of Commencement speaker.

With such a large class, it is not unusual that there would be honors for academic scholarship and contributions to the University community. The following are just some of the Students recognized:

MESSAGE FROM SGA PRESIDENT D.J. DEEB

Wow, it's hard to believe. It's 1999 already! The college years just flew by! Like many of you, I have been involved in numerous activities here at the University of Massachusetts Lowell. For the past four [4] years, I have served as an active member of the Student Government Association and for the past two [2] years, I have served as Student Government Association President. During this time, we have witnessed many changes including: 1) The construction of the Tsongas Arena and LeLacheur Baseball Stadium; 2) Renovations to Southwick Hall; 3) Beginning construction for a Riverwalk; and 3) Appearance changes on South Campus; and 4) Plans for a new Campus Recreation Center. All of this has been accomplished while reducing tuition and fees. The Student Government Association has represented student interests on various university committees-Athletics, Administrative, Alcohol Awareness, Faculty, Food Service, Bookstore, etc. Also, we have sponsored many activities and events on campus including Who's Who Awards, Teacher's Excellence Awards, Headstart Christmas Party, the Don Gagnon Scholarship, etc.

Some of my proudest accomplishments as Student Government Association [SGA] President are as follows: 1) Increased SGA visibility by assigning Senators to act as liaisons to the major clubs and organizations of the University; 2) A faculty voice-mail cancellation system; 3) Changed shuttle bus locations for convenience; 4) Presented recommendations to the Task Force on General Education with regards to the General Education requirements; 5) Obtained a deli bar, salad bar, and improved week-end food selection for resident students; and 6) Proposed and initiated SGA-sponsored evaluations of tenured faculty.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the individuals who have made my college experience as rewarding as it has been. First, I would like to thank my parents for their overwhelming support and encouragement. Next, I would like to thank the many students who supported and elected me President as well as, my many professors and members of the University Administration for affording me a pleasurable experience at UMass Lowell. A special thank you is extended to the SGA Executive Board, both past and present, including Sterling Viehoever, Keith Tremblay, Lisa Frye, Ben Powell, Wayne Standley, Colleen Gleason, and Mike Szyska. Also, thank you to my predecessor Chris Doherty for his support and guidance over the years. Finally, thank you to Sheri, Shaun, and the Yearbook Staff for their hardwork and commitment in preparing this yearbook for us.

Now, as we prepare to move on in life, we must realize that there will be many challenges ahead of us and many obstacles to overcome. As a Class, we can help make a positive difference wherever we may be. We can better ourselves while, helping and assisting others, whether it be in our fields or our community. We can even stay involved here by attending University events and participating in Alumni Association activities. Lastly, I would like to wish the Class of 1999 all the best and Good Luck with all your future endeavors.

The Last Word...

It can be difficult to realize how much work is involved in creating a yearbook especially when you have just graduated from school and have started working a full time job, are just now coming to terms with all the money you have loaned, and how little you are earning. You may have expected the book to be delivered to you just after graduation, but you know now that's not the case. Many schools just like UMASS are just starting to realize that their book is due and that they are not just waiting for pictures. For me that's when the work began. School was over and I was faced with finishing the book. Well as you can see the book has been finished and I appreciate your patience in waiting for it to arrive. I would also like to thank the following people for their help and support that if it weren't for them you would still be waiting for the yearbook.

Dean Ellen Duggan, Dean Tom Taylor, Jeannie Tremblay, Fran Flyn, Janice Larson, Tammy Milette, Office of Student Services, Brenda Evans, Office of Student Activities, Jeanne Keimig, Joann Ginnard, Mary Ann Karabatsos, the Connector Staff, Student Government Association, Dana Skinner, Athletics Department, Paul Stanton, Nate Saffron, Sheri Kovalchek, DJ Deeb, Alyson Masse, and especially Sandy Roth, Dave Roth, and Caryn Orlick-Koran

Thank you for all of your help.

Best Wishes to the Class of 1999

Loretta Montgomery
